

HALF PAST SIX O'CLOCK, P. M.

The House met.

Mr. Millbourne, chairman of the committee on engrossed bills, delivered the following report:

The Committee on Engrossed Bills, beg leave to report, that they have carefully examined and compared the engrossed bills of the House of Delegates, from number one to number forty-five, inclusive, and from number fifty-eight to number one hundred, inclusive, and the engrossed bills of the Senate, from number forty-six, to number fifty-seven, inclusive, with the originals thereof, as heretofore passed by both houses of the Legislature, since the commencement of the present session, and that they have found the same to be truly engrossed.

All which are respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. MILLBOURNE, Chairman.

By order,

BENJAMIN SEEGAR, Clerk.

Which was read, and concurred in.

The engrossed bills, from number one to number forty-five, inclusive, and from number fifty-eight to number one hundred, inclusive, were severally read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The Clerk of the Senate returned the said bills, severally endorsed, "read, and assented to."

And, delivered the engrossed bills of the Senate, from number forty-six to number fifty-seven, inclusive.

Which were severally read, assented to, and returned to the Senate.

A deputation from the Senate being announced, Messrs. Claude and Groome, members of that body, appeared within the bar of the house, and informed the Speaker, that his Excellency the Governor, was attending in the Senate chamber, and requested the attendance of this house to see him sign and seal laws.

The Speaker, attended by the members of this house, went to the senate chamber, when his Excellency, in the presence of both houses, signed and sealed the Laws, from No. 1 to No. 100, inclusive.

The Speaker returned and resumed the chair.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning, nine o'clock.
